

Fond du Lac County Jail Design Project RFP

Questions & Answers 1.21.26

Q: If the County chooses to interview, what date(s) have been blocked out for that?

A: Feb 9th

Q: What is the date the County Board will review and approve the Design Team?

A: Feb 17th

Q: Will the design team or a representative need to attend or present anything at the County Board meeting when the Board is making the final approval?

A: Not required

Q: What will be the date the County will announce who is interviewing?

A: Feb 2nd

Q: Space program was provided in a very high-level summary in a PowerPoint. Is the full space program that the summary was based on available?

A: A complete space program was not finalized with each department. Vendors should plan to use the space program summary as a basis of their space program verification in this next phase of design and meet with each department as necessary for finalize the space program.

Q: What committee / who will the County assign to the review of the proposals and the interviews?

A: Executive Committee

Q: Other than PowerPoint presentations, are there additional materials that were provided to the Ad Hoc or Joint Committee, that were not included on the County website?

A: All information shared with committees and the board can be found at the Fond du Lac County website, under the Government tab, and then the Proposed Jail Project tab

Q: When will the last addenda be issued by the County?

A: This is the final addenda.

Q: Site concepts were discussed in the Board meeting in December but the presentations to the committees didn't show much detail or all concepts reviewed. Are there drawings that are not uploaded to the County website?

A: All information shared with committees and the board can be found at the Fond du Lac County website, under the Government tab, and then the Proposed Jail Project tab

Q: What AIA contract will the A/E team be providing for the owner Architect Agreement?

A: AIA B132 – 2019

Q: When will the Fond Du Lac County Jail Project Design Project go out for Bidding for a General Contractor?

A: Per the RFP "The Fond du Lac County Board has not yet approved funds for any phase of the project. Approval by the Fond du Lac County Board to proceed with the design phases will take place once proposals are received and costs are known for that work."